- 1. AUTHORITY: This Invitation to Bid is written in accordance with AS 36.30 and 2 AAC 12.
- 2. BID PREPARATION COSTS: The State is not liable for any costs incurred by the bidder in bid preparation.
- 3. INSPECTION: Bidders are urged to inspect sale items prior to submitting bids. Property will be available for inspection at the places and times specified in the Invitation. The State will not be obligated to furnish any labor for such purposes. In no case will failure to inspect constitute grounds for a claim or for the withdrawal of a bid after opening.
- 4. CONDITION OF PROPERTY: All property listed herein is offered for sale "as is" and "where is" and without recourse against the State unless otherwise specified in the Invitation. The item description is based on the best available information. The State makes no guaranty, warranty or representation, expressed or implied, as to quantity, kind, character, quality, weight, size, or description of any of sale property, or its fitness for any use or purpose. No claim will be considered for allowance or adjustment or for rescission of the sale based upon failure of the property to correspond with the standard expected.
- 5. CONSIDERATION OF BIDS: The State reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive any technical defects in bids, for any one item or group of items in the bid, as may be in the best interest of the State. Unless otherwise specified, bids may be submitted on the basis of the unit specified in the Invitation, and bids may be submitted on any or all items.

- 6. BID GUARANTEE: The successful bidder agrees to pay to the State the purchase price of the property in accordance with the bid if accepted. If a bid deposit is required it must accompany the bid. Failure to include the required deposit may result in bid rejection. In the event of default by the bidder or failure to comply with all terms and conditions of this agreement, the bidders deposit may be applied to a loss, cost, or expense incurred by the State. Deposits accompanying bids, which are not accepted, will be returned. Deposits of successful bidders may be applied against the contract price, upon completion of the contract any excess of the deposit will be returned.
- 7. PAYMENT: ALL INVOICE(S) TOTALS MUST BE PAID IN FULL PRIOR TO ANY REMOVAL OF PROPERTY. PROPERTY MUST BE REMOVED BY THE STATED DATE. Payment shall be made by Wire Transfer Only. Personal/Business Checks Will Not Be Accepted. Payment of full purchase price must be within 7 days after the end of auction. If the successful bidder fails to make full and final payment the State reserves the right to sell or otherwise dispose of any or all such property in the State's possession and to charge the loss, if any, to the defaulting bidder. ABSOLUTELY NO PARTIAL PAYMENTS!!!
- 8. TITLE: Title to the items of property sold shall transfer to the successful bidder when full and final payment is made. Motor vehicles and motor-propelled or motor-drawn equipment requiring licensing, certificate of release (or a State certificate of title, if such a certificate of title has been issued to the State), will be furnished.
- 9. ACCEPTANCE AND REMOVAL OF PROPERTY: The successful bidder may take possession of the property upon receipt of payment in full. Property shall be removed at the successful bidder expense. The successful bidder shall reimburse the State for any damage to State property resulting from removal. If the successful bidder fails to remove the property within the time specified the State may, at its option, charge the successful bidder and collect upon demand any reasonable storage charges or take possession of the property and offer it for resale or otherwise dispose of the property as the State deems necessary. The award winner is personally responsible for the removal of their awarded property. Any resale or other disposal effort accomplished under this default action is without recourse by the first successful bidder.
- 10. ADJUSTMENT FOR VARIATION IN QUANTITY OR WEIGHT: A material variation discrepancy between specified quantity or weight may be adjusted on the basis of the unit price quoted. Adjustments require the written approval of the Property Disposal Officer. No adjustments will be authorized on lot bids.
- 11. RISK OF LOSS: The State will assume responsibility for the care and protection of property prior to the sale. After award has been made to the successful bidder but prior to removal, the State will exercise reasonable care for the protection of the property, however, all risk of loss, damage, or destruction from any cause whatsoever shall be assumed by the successful bidder.
- 12. LIMITATION ON STATE'S LIABILITY: In any case where liability of the State to the successful bidder has been established, the extreme measure of the State's liability shall not, in any event, exceed refund of the purchase price.

- 13. VERBAL MODIFICATIONS: Oral statements by any representative of the State, modifying or changing any conditions of this contract are an expression of opinion only and do not alter the terms and conditions of this agreement.
- 14. CONFLICT OF INTEREST: An employee or contractor of the owning or disposing agency may not directly or indirectly purchase or submit a bid with another person to purchase surplus supplies or equipment if the employee or contractor is, or has been, directly or indirectly involved in the disposal, maintenance, or preparation for sale of the surplus items.
- 15. ASSIGNMENT(S): Assignment of rights of a bid award is not permitted unless authorized in writing by the State of Alaska, Department of Administration, Division of General Services.
- 16. DISPUTES: Any dispute arising out of this agreement shall be resolved under the laws of Alaska. Any appeal of an administrative order and any original action to enforce any provision of this agreement or to obtain any relief from or remedy in connection with this agreement may be brought only in District or Superior Court for the Third Judicial District of Alaska.
- 17. LOWEST ACCEPTABLE BIDS: Items specifying a "Reserve not Met" may be posted on the sale listing. If no bid received meets or exceeds the reserve amount for an item, the sale of that item will be postponed until a later date or may be sold pursuant to Paragraph 18.
- 18. POST-SALE OFFERS: If the sale of an item is postponed under Paragraph 17, the State may, at its option, accept the highest submitted bid, although the bid may not have met the "Reserve" amount. The State is not obligated to consider or accept an offer made under this section but may, at its option, negotiate a sale based upon such an offer.
- 19. DEFAULT & DEBARMENT: Failure to comply with the Standard Terms and Condition or and Special Terms of this or any sale may result in the bidder being placed in default. A bidder will have a maximum of seven (7) days in which to contact and pay for, an awarded item. Failure to take action may result in suspension and/or debarment action in accordance with AS 36.30.650.
- 20. HOLD HARMLESS: The successful bidder shall indemnify, save harmless, and defend the State, its officers, agents and employees, from liability of any nature or kind, including costs and expenses for or on account of any and all suits or damages of any character whatsoever resulting from injuries or damages sustained by any person or persons or property by virtue of any act performed by the successful bidder of the successful bidder's agents and employees pursuant to this invitation for bids; the successful bidder shall also assume all insurable risks and bear any loss or injury to property or persons occasioned by neglect or accident during the tenure of this contract, excepting only sole negligence of the State.
- 21. TAKE POSSESSION DATE: The Successful Bidder must take possession of the item won no later than 2 weeks after the end of the auction.
